RE: Speaking Invitation
St. Louis Rotary Club
St. Louis, Missouri
28 April 1988

Vice Chairman of the Program Committee of the Rotary Club of St. Louis, R. S. Edwards, has invited you to address the Club on April 28th, the day before your appearance at the St. Louis Bar Association. Mr. Edwards also invited you last fall to speak on a convenient date. We had recommended that you address the group sometime when you were planning to be in St. Louis.

Since you already have four scheduled speaking engagements in April, I recommend that you decline this additional invitation for now, but I suggest that you speak to this group some other time when you plan to be in St. Louis. If you agree, please sign the attached letter.

Dear Bob:

I appreciate your invitation to speak at the St. Louis Rotary Club on April 28th. I do plan to be in St. Louis on the 29th, but my schedule is so tight that I cannot accept another speaking engagement for this trip. I hope that we can work out a date for this fall or some other time when I am in St. Louis. I look forward to seeing you.

Dear Bill:

At the Rotary Club Program Committee meeting yesterday, Paul Rava said you might be addressing the American Bar Association in St. Louis on April 29. If this is so, we are hopeful you can include the Rotary Club on your agenda, and speak to us April 28.

We all know how busy you must be in your new job; but it would be the highlight of our year if you can fit this in.

Sincerely yours,

It has now developed that a long-planned, lengthy business trip may not get me back in time to address the Junior Achievement Awards Banquet on Monday, March 14th. Rather than take a chance, I think it would be the better part of wisdom for me to withdraw so that you can locate another appropriate speaker. I'm very disappointed. I know how important this evening is for the young leaders being honored and for all who have worked on this event. I hope you will give them my personal congratulations.

You raised a question concerning an invitation to speak at the Junior Achievement of Mississippi Valley Awards banquet. (See opposite for previous correspondence.) Your participation in the event is still tentative, and if you wish you can still withdraw. However, you could expect a large audience (about 1800) of young adults as well as area leaders. If you decide that you do wish to speak at the banquet, you have other invitations from the St. Louis area that are pending which you may wish to consider including on your trip. These are The Rotary Club (see opposite) and Washington University (see attached package).

I recommend that you accept the invitation to speak at the Junior Achievement of Mississippi Valley Award banquet.

Mr. Robert L. Harmon, Chairman of Junior Achievement's Board of Directors, has invited you to chair the 1988 "Future Unlimited Banquet" for the Junior Achievement program in St. Louis. The tentative date of March 14th is suggested. You are asked to share the podium responsibilities with Mr. Harmon. Your host proposes working from a prepared script with ample opportunity for personal remarks. You could expect an audience of 1,800 corporate leaders, volunteers, and some 900 young adults from the St. Louis area. You have several other speaking invitations in St. Louis for next spring. I think we could work out a schedule where you could speak to several groups while you were in the area. If you agree, a letter is attached for your signature.

Dear Bill:

I just noticed in reading the minutes of Junior Achievement that you will be the future Unlimited Banquet Chairman on March 14. Bill, that is super-tremendous. This JA Banquet fills the biggest ballroom at the Clarion, with tables placed so close together it's hard to move around. The banquet is always sold out, so we can't count on increasing attendance because of your presence, but we can count on a new dimension in interest and in service to society.

It is great that you will take the time to come out and participate in this very fine activity. We are all very grateful to Bob Harmon for accepting the Chairmanship of our Mississippi Valley JA and he certainly gets a ten strike for lining you up as Chairman of this affair for next Spring.

Sincerely,
